WITH GRATITUDE

As I enter everyone's email addresses, I marvel at how many people were involved in yesterday's celebration -- and realize that there are others whom I missed or whose addresses I don't have, so please forward this email.

What a phenomenal service -- rather, entire morning -- you all came up with! What a touching honor! The music from all was amazing --- children/youth, senior choir, handbells, worship consort, trumpets, flutes, violin, piano, organ, and commissioned song! There is no shortage of talent and ingenuity at LBPC. It was wonderful to be among such a fine group of friends.

Thank you for the generous congregational gift, for the specially-commissioned music manuscript, and for the beautiful etched Harvard Dictionary --- Come see how stunning it looks in my studio on the piano!

I'm running out of adjectives, but thank you for being such a vital part of my life, and taking up permanent residence in my heart!

Donna
